GENERAL MANAGEMENT

Working professionals today are expected to deliver quicker results while managing various business processes across multiple departments. It is imperative that one gains an in-depth understanding of the workings of business across disciplines. MBA at IIT Kanpur prepares one for the same with a flexible structure to explore various interests and disciplines. Students are made industry-ready in theory and practice with a project and case-focused approach.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Organizations today face the challenge of acquiring, training, retaining, reskilling, motivating, and managing their people. HR indeed is the key to maintaining the right mix of talent needed for an organization to grow and reach its goals. MBA at IIT Kanpur provides its students with an opportunity to develop deep insights and expertise in the core and advanced HRM and the integration of technology into it.

OPERATIONS

For any business to run profitably, it needs all its prime operations and functions executed with utmost quality and effectiveness. MBA at IIT Kanpur aims to develop students to build an understanding of how organizations can structure their processes to support various strategic objectives and also of how operational choices impact other functions within the organization. (In the context of manufacturing, production, and service rendering, the program trains the students in the aspects of supply chain, quality control, and optimization of systems and processes to prepare them for the industry.)
